

Konstantinos Kalachanis was born in 1981 in Athens.

He received his degree in Philosophy-Pedagogics and Psychology, from the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Athens and a Master's degree in "Environment and Health, Capacity building for decision making" in the Medical School of the University of Athens. Since 2012 he has been teaching the course "Bioethics" to the students of the Post Graduate Program "Environment and Health, Capacity building for decision making" and also the course "Environment and Cancer" to the students of the Post Graduate Program "Neoplastic Diseases: Diagnosis, and Research". During 2015 he was instructor in the two circles of the training program "Medical Tourism Coordinators/Facilitators Training" implemented by NEA GNOSI PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL TRAINING.

He has teaching experience in Customer Care and Culture Sensitivity Seminars which were parts of Medical Tourism Programs in cooperation with K.E.K. "Nea Gnosi". Those seminars took place in:

- a) "Filoktitis" Center of Recovery and Rehabilitation in Koropi, Attica.
- b) "Iaso" Clinics in Maroussi, Attica.

Also he holds a PhD in Philosophy from the University of Athens. His scientific works includes 75 articles which have been published in refereed scientific journals, in conference proceedings and scientific volumes. He has also participated in greek and international scientific conferences. Furthermore in the period between 2012-2016 he was a Research Fellow in the Faculty of Physics of the University of Athens.

Press here to see the extended cv <https://www.linkedin.com/in/konstantinos-kalachanis-5a030040/>